Showing Another Generation the Ropes

It was a beautiful thing to observe, even when I was supposed to be totally focusing on distributing the Body and Blood of our Savior, Jesus Christ. I was of course intentional about speaking the name of nearly every person who reached out their hands as I looked them in the eye and said, “The Body of Christ given for you” before placing the wafer in their palm. Yet I could not help but glance out of the corner of my eye every few people to watch as little Vivian trailed behind the wine server collecting empty glasses. Her seriousness and enthusiasm highlighted the celebration of the Sacrament at that Saturday evening worship.

Vivian’s father, David, walked up with her when the other communion distributors came to serve. I thought it a bit odd at first as to why this eight- year- old was in this initial group of what is usually all adults with the exception of the junior high acolytes. David whispered in my ear and said, “Vivian wants to collect the wine glasses tonight.” This is normally the job of an acolyte, but on that evening we had only one and could sure use another. We’ve never started them as young as eight years old, but hey—she’s volunteering—let’s roll with it!

Vivian took the horse by the reins. Keeping in perfect step with appropriate gestures of humility in receiving the empties as those communing placed their cups in her tray, Vivian beamed with pride. Dad was in the background but within a soft ear’s shot to offer coaching and point out what to do when she occasionally got that “what do I do now” look on her face. The two seemed like they had not just rehearsed this in the car on the way to church but had possibly had conversation about doing this long before. It was a thing of spiritual beauty—a young girl wanting to serve and a dad showing her the ropes of faith. It doesn’t get any more blessed than that in the church.

An elder St. Paul says to a much younger Timothy in 2 Timothy 1:5-6, “I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you.” Oh, how this testifies to the faith that is passed on from generation to generation. It is true in this New Testament passage as it’s true in the Old Testament as the torch of faith is relayed from Abraham to Isaac to Jacob to Joseph and on through the ages. In the same way, David was sharing elements of this great gift with Vivian, and we pray that, when eight-year-old Vivian has children, her children will give birth to faith passed on from her as well!

What a Holy Communion it was to witness this simple, yet profound, miracle of faith being passed on from father to daughter at worship on that Saturday evening! And that’s how it happens—because we are not born with faith—it must be shared, spoken of, relayed from one person to the next in sharing the Word of God in word and deed. It’s a necessary part of the faith story for us to teach the faith.

And so, parents, grandparents, baptismal sponsors, Sunday School teachers, Confirmation mentors, all adults, friends, and family teach the faith—provide faith instruction in modeling prayer at home, opening the Bible in family settings, calculating the tithe with your children’s allowance and job income, engaging in service, demonstrating forgiveness, and even showing them the ropes of how to collect empty cups at communion. I’m telling you, it was a sight to see, and I hope we continue to see more of it in all realms of life and faith.

Kingdom Power,
+Pastor Bobby

GLOBAL LEADERSHIP SUMMIT COMING TO FBG!

The GLS is slated for August 11-12 hosted by HGLC and held at the University Center. Fortunately and unfortunately, there is not a seat left in the house! Yes, "sold out!" 200 hundred plus will be fed as they seek to become better and more faithful leaders in whatever area of life they may lead.

FBG is one of 300 sites in North America that will equip over 300K persons with greater skills, knowledge, and faith in leading themselves, families, businesses and churches! People are still needed to serve as parking attendants, ushers, greeters, registration, etc. Please visit with Harvey Hengst, 997-9921 or Kim Gibbs, 997-5075 for more info on ways to serve!

Partner organizations teaming with HGLC in committing to bring the GLS to town include: FISSD, Hill Country Memorial Hospital, Allen Keller Co/Security Bank, First Baptist Church, and the Church of Christ, Kerrville. Community enthusiasm is building!

WONDROUS Gift

Special Gifts

An anonymous gift was received to cover the cost for new candelabras. The new set is being shipped and will arrive sometime this summer. A gift of $93,077 was also received for the "Organ Fund" from the estate of Fred and Dottie Lucas. This fund insures the long-term use of our beautiful pipe organ covering repairs, updates, cleaning, upkeep, and maintenance on the instrument. Praise be to God for the "Special Gifts" that persons designate above and beyond their regular tithes and offerings!

NEEDED: SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS!

- Do you have a desire for children's ministry?
- Do you want to discover more about the Bible yourself?
- Do you enjoy playing fun games, singing fun songs, and making fun crafts?

If you answered YES to any of these questions, we would love for you to join our Sunday School team! There's a place for everyone, and the time commitment is reasonable. You don't need a Bible-genius' brain, just a servant's heart!

If you would like to join us in our quest to be and make young disciples - or would like more info.- please contact Kay Melcer or Daniel Hofmann!

COWBOY SERVICE

The traditional HGLC Cowboy-style service will be offered on July 3 at the 10:30am worship! This is a low-key, great opportunity to invite your under-churched or unchurched friends to experience church in a non-threatening style. So, be a disciple of Jesus and invite! A hamburger/hotdog meal will be served after the service. The cost will be $5 per plate.

Devotion & Dessert

Come and join the fun and fellowship at the Concert at the Marktplaz on Sunday July 24th.

We will have a devotion at 5:45 pm and the music starts at 6:30.

Creation Care

Psalm 102: 25-27 Long ago you laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands. They will perish, but you endure; they will all wear out like a garment. You change them like clothing, and they pass away; but you are the same, and your years have no end.

Weatherization - the process of sealing air leaks and properly insulating a home – can produce an average energy savings of $358 per household per year, according to the U.S. Department of Energy. Over the next summer months, we will post ideas to help your home become more energy efficient.

Air Infiltration

Air that leaks into and out of homes through cracks, crevices and holes can increase energy consumption. Here are some helpful tips to avoid air infiltration:

- Seal around pipes coming through the walls.
- During hot and cold weather, ensure that windows are closed tightly and locked.
- Be sure weatherstripping around doors and windows is tight and doesn't have any cracks.
- When your fireplace is not operating, its damper should be closed tightly, with a sign hanging from the damper handle warning that it is closed.
- Drop-down, disappearing stairways should fit tightly into the ceiling and be carefully weather stripped.
- Make sure your outside dryer vent door closes when the dryer is not in use. This requires cleaning away lint accumulation periodically.

LOCAL MISSIONS

"But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, and you will be blessed because they cannot repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

This is such an appropriate verse for the plans of the Local Missions Team for Christmas Dinner this year. This fall you will see signups for various ways to help. The Needs Council has expressed a need for clients to have a place to go for Christmas Dinner. They will put together names of people who are interested. We will also have many in our congregation who do not have family in town or are unable to enjoy the day. It is early to start planning, but we want you to be aware in case you can build this into your plans for the holiday. How can you serve?

Prepare food for two days prior to Christmas, baking and cooking.

Drive individuals to the church on the day of the event.

Serve food on Christmas Day to our dinner guests.

Visit with guests in a Holiday Spirit.

Help with cleanup after the dinner.

Donate funds designated to the "Local Missions" Christmas Dinner.

We also need some volunteers to complete applications for food serving licenses.

Contact Linda Christensen at (309) 361-3970 for any additional information.

WORSHIP IN JULY

*Saturday, 6:00pm offers an Informal Service;
Sunday, 8:00am is a Traditional Service;
and Sunday, 10:30am is a Varied Format.*

“Come, let us worship the Lord!”

The Sermon Series: The Summer Sermon Series is titled, “Leaders Come in All Sizes, Shapes & Colors” as the focus builds up to the Global Leadership Summit by centering our attention on Bible leaders who may be lesser known but no doubt had great impact for the Kingdom!

Sat. & Sun., July 2 & 3: The focus for today’s message is Giving Our Best to God! We meet the couple, Elkanah & Hannah in 1 Samuel chapter 1. Hannah is childless and pours her earnest prayers out to God, that if God would provide her a child, she would dedicate him to the Lord. What does it mean to give our best to God?

Sat. & Sun., July 9 & 10: Pastor Alan Williams, one of the HGLC Visitation Ministers, will preach this weekend. Pastor Alan will focus on Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego from the book of Daniel, who persevered through flame and fire, trusting God’s promise of Salvation.

Sat. & Sun., July 16 & 17: Jonathan, the son of King Saul is the lesser known leader who will teach us about loyalty—not loyalty to country or blood kin, but loyalty to truth. He does this by choosing to befriend David instead of siding with his own father. 1 Samuel 18 and 20 shares this story.

Sat. & Sun., July 23 & 24: Lot is called “righteous,” yet he played some pretty terrible hands in his life. Genesis 19 speaks of his sins, yet 2 Peter 2:9 refers to him as righteous. Who is righteous? What makes righteous? How are we saved?

Sat. & Sun., July 30 & 31: Aaron, the brother of Moses, is the spokesman for Moses. Exodus 3 tells us that Moses had an impediment in his speech which he tried to use as an excuse to not lead the children of Israel out of captivity in Egypt by confronting Pharaoh. Yet God instructed him to lean on Aaron to be Moses’ voice to the people. Moses is the poster child leader, yet his message goes nowhere without Aaron. What “smaller” part of the story does God ask you to do without being the out front person? What part of the big picture is God asking Holy Ghost Church to do and not worry about who gets the credit?

ELECTRONIC GIVING

Holy Ghost invites any interested members to sign up for an electronic option for making regular offerings. Some of our members have been doing this for some time, and it’s quite easy. Contributions can be debited automatically from your checking or savings account. Our electronic giving program, through VANCO Payment Solutions, offers convenience for you and much-needed donation consistency for our congregation.

If you currently give on a weekly basis, you will no longer need to write out 52 checks a year or prepare 52 envelopes. And, when travel, illness, or other circumstances prevent you from attending services, this program allows your weekly offerings to continue on an uninterrupted basis.

An authorization form will be in your weekly church bulletin. Contact June Woerner for sign up information at the church office 997-2288.

Sleep Apnea

Sleep apnea is a common disorder in which you have one or more pauses in breathing or shallow breaths while you sleep. These pauses can last from a few seconds to minutes. Typically, normal breathing then starts again, sometimes with a loud snort or choking sound.

Sleep apnea usually is a chronic (ongoing) condition that disrupts your sleep. When your breathing pauses or becomes shallow, you'll often move out of deep sleep and into light sleep. As a result, the quality of your sleep is poor, which makes you tired during the day. Sleep apnea is a leading cause of excessive daytime sleepiness. Sleep apnea often goes undiagnosed.

Untreated sleep apnea can:

- Increase the risk of high blood pressure, heart attack, stroke, obesity, and diabetes
- Increase the risk of, or worsen, heart failure
- Make arrhythmias, or irregular heartbeats, more likely
- Increase the chance of having work-related or driving accidents

Doctors diagnose sleep apnea based on medical and family histories, physical exams, and sleep study results. Your primary care doctor may evaluate your symptoms first. Sleep specialists are doctors who diagnose and treat people who have sleep problems.

Your doctor will check your mouth, nose, and throat for extra or large tissues. Children who have sleep apnea might have enlarged tonsils. Sleep studies are tests that measure how well you sleep and how your body responds to sleep problems. Sleep studies are the most accurate tests for diagnosing sleep apnea.

Sleep apnea is treated with lifestyle changes, mouthpieces, breathing devices, and surgery. CPAP (continuous positive airway pressure) is the most common treatment for moderate to severe sleep apnea in adults. A CPAP machine uses a mask that fits over your mouth and nose, or just over your nose. The machine gently blows air into your throat. The pressure from the air helps keep your airway open while you sleep.

If you have mild sleep apnea, some changes in daily activities or habits might be all the treatment you need. Avoid alcohol and medicines that make you sleepy. Lose weight if you're overweight. Sleep on your side instead of your back to help keep your throat open. Keep your nasal passages open at night with nasal sprays or allergy medicines, if needed. Quit smoking.

The Health Care Team does not want you to underestimate the importance of restful & restorative sleep.

Adult Class Opportunities

"Toward a New Creation" studies in Zephaniah and Romans, led by Alton Klier. (Sundays, 9:15am - FH)

Luther's Small Catechism: The Fundamentals of Our Faith. Anyone who would like to learn more about the Lutheran Church and the basics of their faith is invited to join this class. Pastor David leads the class. (Sundays, 9:15am - FH)

Apologetics Class: The "Apologetics Class" that Gil Becker led in Adult Sunday School is offered on Tuesdays at 6:00pm in the Fellowship Hall. "Apologetics" is about learning to defend the tenants of our faith by utilizing the theology of our faith. Early Christian writers between the years 120-220 who defended their faith against critics were called apologists. There is no greater time in our modern era than now to be able to articulate what we believe and why we believe what we believe. New Class: The Apologetics Study Group will take up the subject of Predestination in a six week series beginning June 5th. There will be a Sunday morning session during Sunday School starting at 9:15am. A repeat session on Tuesday night starts at 6:30pm. This series is intense and will require some outside reading and study. It will also require an open mind, a charitable attitude, and a loving heart.

A Married Couples Class focuses on applications of Biblical principles for interacting with others sprinkled with fun and fellowship. Leading the class are Jerry & Rhonda Gross. (Sundays, 9:15am - Kammlah Room in Ed. Bldg.)

Men's Breakfast Devotion: On the 2nd Wednesday of every month at 6:30am, a group meets for food, fellowship, and a devotion at Jalisco's Restaurant.

Ladies Lunch Study: The ladies lunch study meets every other Wednesday (July 13 & 27) from Noon-1ish in the FH Alpha Room.
