

“The God Who Sees Me!” Woman of Faith: Hagar

Genesis 16:1-15

Prayer of the Day Gracious God, we are ever so grateful that You know each and every one of us intimately, and that we are never far from Your sight. We praise You that You especially pay attention to the times when we are hurting and come to our aid; in Christ Jesus' name we pray; C:
AMEN.

1. What has Sarah's predicament?
2. How did she solve it?
3. How did her taking the issue in her own hands create more problems for her?
4. What became Hagar's predicament?
5. What was Abraham's predicament?
6. Why will there always be predicaments between people in this world? In our relationships?
7. How is it that “running” is not always a bad option?
8. What does GOD do when we are stuck in a “desert?”
9. How is this consistent with the Biblical stories throughout scripture?
10. Can you name a time when GOD came to you in some form or fashion in a desert you were experiencing?
11. Why is it important that we be reminded that God Sees Us in our pain?
12. Where right now might You need to be reminded that God has not abandoned you, but yet sees you?
