

HGLC Music Ministry

Happy October, church! In the Hofmann household, we anticipate October with much excitement... there is so much to look forward to! With October, we revel in the (hopefully) cooler temperatures as festival season in Fredericksburg makes its return. Amongst all the fellowship and fun at Marktplatz in October, we at HGLC celebrate another year of being a church in fellowship with each other at the church picnic. With anticipation that I hope you all feel as well, I am so pleased that both the Youth and Sanctuary choirs will be singing in church this month. Being able to meet each week and sing together is a beautiful fellowship and we all look forward to singing for you!

Taken straight from scripture, “Blest are They” is the perfect anthem to start the youth choir’s theme of The Beatitudes”! With a tender, lyrical melody, this piece shares what it means to be “blessed” according to Christ in his Sermon on the Mount. As a fun bonus “Blest are They” is also in the hymnal; #764! Feel free to follow and sing along and we hope this song and the kiddos singing it are a blessing to you. Enjoy!

I first heard “Is He Worthy?” as I was looking through HGLC’s music library. I heard it again as I watched news coverage of the revival at Asbury University in Kentucky last February. It is a beautiful song that reflects on the hope of Christ in a sin-fallen world and reminds us that Christ is worthy of “all blessing and honor and glory” despite the hardships we face. Our choir does a fantastic job of supporting soloist, David Bullion, with harmonies that build and soar. You can’t help but to worship and sing along! We hope you enjoy “Is He Worthy?”

With a joyful heart,

Katie
