

HGLC Music Ministry

Happy September everyone! I hope everyone enjoyed some time away this summer and that the transition back to a more regular schedule as vacations end and school begins has been a peaceful one. I always find a sense of relief as we settle into our routines, and I've been ready and excited for a while to have our choirs start back up again! That time is here now and I'm very much looking forward to sharing the work that our choirs put in to make HGLC's music ministry so special. Each month, I'll talk about some of the "musical moments" we've experienced as a choir as well as music you can look forward to hearing from us in the upcoming month. Our choirs and the exuberant souls that make them up are such a blessing to me and I know they will be a blessing to you as well!

The HGLC choir season kicks off with "He Lives"! This piece is a fantastic hymn that has been treasured in many congregations. I grew up singing this song just about every Easter and I was always so impressed by how our little congregation in Pleasanton, TX just gave it all they had every time. I could always hear the melody ringing out, but I could also hear our preacher's wife singing the alto part or sometimes even the tenor part and I loved to listen to the low bass voices echoing "He lives!", throughout the chorus. The choir has put together a fun recreation of that Easter memory, proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ. Please enjoy "He Lives"!
