The Skinny on Youth Ministry

December was a busy, but also calm month. We had our last youth group night of 2025 by having a Christmas party. Then, we said goodbye for three weeks. During the Christmas break, John and Daniel did much-needed purging of the youth room. Some of the most interesting things we found were, but not limited to: Youth Ministry magazines from 2001, food from 2019, a weird stain on the floor that doesn't match any of the paint in the youth room, someone's retainer underneath a couch, and glow-in-the-dark bubbles. There's more that needs to be done in the youth room, but a facelift was much needed. The youth officially returned on January 14th and enjoyed the new look!

We kicked off our new series, "After You", which is all about how we can love others well. We're challenging our teens to figure out ways we can love others in our community, our schools, and in our church.

Our middle schoolers enjoying a "non-competitive" game of Gagaball!
