Youth Ministry this month

This past month of youth ministry has been one of firsts, but also one of deep reflection for our teens. At the end of January, we went to the Generate Youth Conference in San Antonio. This was a first for our ministry, and we didn't know what to expect. God showed up and teens were impacted. We heard all about what it means to know God vs. know about God. We walked through the Book of Acts and saw how important it is to know God, especially as our loving Savior.

On Wednesday nights, we've also kicked off a new series, "Am I doing this right?" This series is all about our faith walk. Many times, we wonder if we're doing this thing right. Are we saying the right things? Reading and praying enough? When in reality, our faith isn't a list of things to do, but rather, it's all about a relationship with God. Our heart's desire should be to know God more and more instead of checking off boxes for our faith. This series has invoked some amazing discussion in our small group times!
